

LIMITED POWER OF ATTORNEY

Parties

Principal: _____

Agent: _____

Limited Purpose

The Principal appoints the Agent to act on the Principal's behalf solely for the specific act or transaction described below. This power of attorney grants no general, ongoing, or continuing authority of any kind.

Specific Act or Transaction Authorized: _____

Scope Limitations

The Agent's authority under this document is strictly limited to completing the matter described above. The Agent has no authority over any other property, account, or affair of the Principal, and may not use this document to undertake any unrelated transaction.

Effective Period

Effective Date: ____ / ____ / ____

Expiration Date or Completion Event: _____

Automatic Termination

This power of attorney terminates automatically on the earliest of: completion of the specific act or transaction described above, the stated expiration date, the Principal's death, or the Principal's written revocation. Unless the Principal expressly states otherwise below, this limited power of attorney does not continue if the Principal becomes incapacitated.

Instructions Regarding Incapacity (if any): _____

Revocation

The Principal may revoke this power of attorney at any time by delivering written notice of revocation to the Agent and to any third party relying on it.

Notarization and State Requirements

Whether this document needs to be notarized or witnessed depends on the specific transaction and the state involved — real estate, vehicle title, and certain financial transactions commonly require notarization before third parties will accept a power of attorney. Confirm the requirements that apply to the specific transaction and to the states where the Principal lives and where the Agent will use this document, and arrange for notarization or witnesses accordingly before relying on it.

Governing Law

This Power of Attorney shall be governed by the laws of the State/Country of _____, without regard to its conflict-of-law principles.
