

SIMPLE WILL FOR SMALL ESTATE

Testator and Revocation

Testator: _____

City/State of Residence: _____

I, the Testator named above, being of sound mind, declare this to be my will, intended for a modest and straightforward estate. I revoke all prior wills and codicils I have made.

Family Status

Marital Status: _____

Names of Children (if any): _____

Appointment of Executor

Executor: _____

Alternate Executor: _____

I appoint the Executor named above to collect my assets, pay my debts and expenses, and distribute the remainder of my estate as set out below, using any simplified or small-estate procedures available under applicable law.

Specific Gifts of Personal Property

I make the following specific gifts of personal property, if any; all other property not specifically listed here passes as part of my residuary estate below.

Specific Gifts (item and recipient): _____

Residuary Estate

I give the remainder of my estate not otherwise specifically disposed of above (my residuary estate) to the beneficiary or beneficiaries named below, in the shares indicated:

Residuary Beneficiary(ies) and Shares: _____

Guardian for Minor Children (If Applicable)

Guardian: _____

Alternate Guardian: _____

Payment of Debts, Expenses, and Taxes

I direct my Executor to pay my legally enforceable debts, funeral expenses, and estate administration expenses from my estate before distributing the remainder as provided above.

Signing and Witnessing Requirements

To be valid, a will typically must be signed in the presence of a required number of disinterested witnesses, and some states allow a self-proving affidavit signed before a notary to simplify probate later. Requirements vary by state, including who may serve as a witness. Confirm and complete the formalities that apply where the Testator lives before relying on this will.

Governing Law

This will shall be interpreted under the laws of the State/Country of _____.

Signatures

Testator Signature: _____

Name: _____

Date: ____ / ____ / ____

Witness Signature: _____

Name: _____

Date: ____ / ____ / ____