Parties and Event

Organizer: _____

Participant: _____

Event Name: _____

Event Dates: _____

Team Name (if applicable): _____

Eligibility

The Participant confirms they meet any eligibility requirements published for the Event and that the information provided during registration is accurate.

Intellectual Property Ownership

As between the Organizer and the Participant, the Participant (or, for a team project, the team members collectively) owns the code and other work product they create during the Event, except as expressly stated otherwise in the Event's published rules.

License to Organizer

The Participant grants the Organizer a non-exclusive, royalty-free license to use, display, and reproduce the Participant's Event project and a description of it for judging, demonstration, and reasonable promotional purposes related to the Event.

Pre-Existing IP

This Agreement does not transfer ownership of any code, tools, or materials the Participant brings into the Event that were created before the Event began.

Liability Waiver and Assumption of Risk

The Participant voluntarily assumes all risk of participating in the Event and releases the Organizer from liability for injury, loss, or damage arising from participation, except to the extent caused by the Organizer's gross negligence or willful misconduct.

Code of Conduct

The Participant acknowledges having read and agrees to follow the Event's code of conduct, and understands that violating it may result in removal from the Event.

Code of Conduct Reference/Link: _____

Media and Publicity Release

The Participant grants the Organizer permission to use photos, video, or recordings taken during the Event that include the Participant for reasonable promotional purposes related to the Event.

Disqualification

The Organizer may disqualify a Participant or team for violating the code of conduct, the Event's eligibility rules, or this Agreement.

Governing Law

This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State/Country of _____, without regard to its conflict-of-law principles.
