

EMPLOYEE NON-DISCLOSURE AGREEMENT

Parties

Employer: _____

Employee: _____

Definition of Confidential Information

"Confidential Information" means any non-public information the Employee learns or has access to during employment, including business plans, customer data, pricing, source code, product plans, and other proprietary information, however it is disclosed.

Obligations of Employee

The Employee agrees to use Confidential Information only to perform their job duties, to keep it confidential during and after employment, and not to disclose it to any third party without the Employer's written consent.

Exclusions

This Agreement does not apply to information that is already public, becomes public through no fault of the Employee, or that the Employee is required to disclose by law, provided reasonable notice is given to the Employer where legally permitted.

Duration

The Employee's confidentiality obligations under this Agreement continue during employment and indefinitely afterward, for as long as the information remains confidential.

Return of Materials

Upon request or at the end of employment, the Employee agrees to return or destroy all materials containing Confidential Information in their possession.

Remedies

The Employee acknowledges that a breach of this Agreement could cause the Employer irreparable harm, and that the Employer may seek injunctive relief in addition to any other available remedy.

Governing Law

This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State/Country of _____, without regard to its conflict-of-law principles.
