

Remote Work Policy Acknowledgment

This Remote Work Policy ("Policy") outlines [Company Name]'s expectations for employees who work remotely, whether on a full-time, hybrid, or occasional basis.

1. Eligibility.

Remote work arrangements are approved at the discretion of the employee's manager and are subject to the operational needs of the Company.

2. Work Hours and Availability.

Remote employees are expected to be available during the Company's core working hours of [Core Hours, e.g. "10:00 AM - 3:00 PM local time"] and to maintain regular communication with their team.

3. Equipment and Security.

Remote employees are responsible for maintaining a secure and reliable internet connection and for safeguarding any Company equipment, data, and credentials used while working remotely, including following the Company's data security practices.

4. Workspace.

Employees are responsible for maintaining a safe and suitable workspace for remote work. The Company is not responsible for costs associated with setting up a home office unless otherwise agreed in writing.

5. Performance Expectations.

Remote work does not change an employee's performance expectations, obligations, or reporting requirements. Managers and employees should agree on clear check-in and communication practices.

6. Policy Changes.

The Company may modify this Policy at any time. Employees will be notified of material changes.

By signing below, I acknowledge that I have read and agree to comply with this Remote Work Policy.
